On behalf of the Clear Hills County Council, we write this letter to express our deepest gratitude and appreciation for the tremendous support and unwavering dedication you have shown during the recent wildfires that devastated Clear Hills County. The resilience and spirit demonstrated by each and every one of you have truly made a profound difference in our community.

During this challenging and perilous time, we witnessed an outpouring of selflessness and unity that inspired us all. From the Volunteer Firefighters who fearlessly battled the flames, to the Alberta Fire Services who provided invaluable assistance, and to every individual who stepped forward and offered a helping hand, your commitment and bravery were truly exceptional.

We are incredibly grateful for the countless hours you dedicated to protecting our homes, businesses, and the safety of our fellow community members. Your tireless efforts, often under difficult and dangerous conditions, were nothing short of heroic. The sacrifices you made and the risks you faced to safeguard our beloved Clear Hills County did not go unnoticed.

Furthermore, we want to express our heartfelt appreciation to all the community members who generously contributed their time, resources, and support in various ways. Whether it was providing shelter and supplies to those affected, organizing relief efforts, or offering comfort and reassurance to those in distress, your compassion and empathy truly embodied the spirit of our community.

To everyone from the front line down, please know that everything that you did was noticed and appreciated. Your acts of kindness, resilience, and solidarity have not only helped us overcome this disaster but have also strengthened the fabric of our community. It is through challenges like these that we are reminded of the unwavering spirit and the power of unity that reside within each of us.

As we continue the process of recovery, we look forward to a stronger, vibrant, and even more amazing County. Your support and collaboration will be instrumental in healing the wounds left by the wildfires and ensuring a brighter future for all our residents.

Once again, we extend our deepest gratitude to each and every one of you for your exceptional dedication, courage, and generosity. Your actions during this crisis embody the true spirit of community, and we are proud to serve and represent such an extraordinary group of individuals.

Education & Senior's Housing Property Tax

In addition to levying property taxes sufficient to meet the annual operating and capital budget requirements of the County, the County is also required to levy and collect school and senior's housing foundation taxes. Every year the province calculates, based on assessment value, the amount each municipality must contribute towards the public education system.

Municipalities collect the education property tax from ratepayers and then forward it to the province for deposit into the Alberta School Foundation Fund (ASFF).

What does this tax pay for? The education property tax supports all public and separate school students. The education property tax helps pay for instructional costs including teacher salaries, textbooks, and other classroom resources.

Does everyone pay the education property tax? All property owners pay the education property tax (with some exceptions, such as non-profit organizations and senior's lodge facilities.) People without children in school also pay the education property tax.

Can I direct my education property tax to a private school? No. Provincial law, money collected through the education property tax can only be used to fund the public education system, which includes public and separate schools. Private school funding comes from 3 sources: provincial general revenues, tuition, or instruction fees paid by parents, and private fundraising.

How is my share calculated? Your share is based on the assessment value of your property and the local education property tax.

Where does the education property tax go? The money collected from the education property tax goes to fund Albertans' priorities in education. The education property tax is pooled into the ASFF and then distributes among Alberta's public and separate school boards on an equal per-student basis.

All Separate schools in the province have opted-out of the ASFF, which means they requisition and collect property tax money from the municipalities directly. Any difference between what an opted-out board collects and what they are entitled to receive is adjusted so there is no financial gain to a school jurisdiction that opts out of the ASFF.

Clear Hills County Property Tax notices will be sent out the begin in May 2023!

Deadline to appeal and pay your 2023 taxes is July 17, 2023.

When a mill rate increases, this does not necessarily mean the property tax amount will increase in direct proportion, or vice versa.

If a property's assessment value has not increased, the mill rate is adjusted in such a way to lessen the impact of the property tax value.

The assessed value is a separate calculation based upon many factors that will determine what the final tax levy will be.

The assessed value is rarely the same as an appraised or market value.

What are Mill Rates?

The mill rate is the amount of tax payable per dollar of the assessed value of a property. Mill stands for millage and is based on the Latin word for 'thousandth'. One mill is equal to 1/1000th. The mill rate is synonymous with local tax rates in Alberta. The mill rate changes from year to year in relation to local property valuations (assessments). Assessments are based upon previous sales within Clear Hills County.

Clear Hills County has 4 classifications of assessed property; Residential, Non-Residential, Farmland and Machinery & Equipment. Each classification is assigned its own mill (tax) rate and this method is used to determine the taxes that are to be paid on that property. Properties classified as Non-Residential and Machinery & Equipment are assigned the same mill rate, as required by legislation.

$$\text{Assessment Value} \times \text{Mill Rate} \div 1,000 = \text{TAX LEVY}$$

For example:

In 2021 a residential property is assessed at $100,000.00. In 2022 the property is taxed at a total residential mill rate of 4.4201. Therefore, the total tax payable will be $442.01.

$$$100,000.00 \times 4.4201 \div 1,000 = $442.01$$

Assessment

Farm Properties- Farmland is defined as "land used for farming operations as defined in the regulations", and is assessed based on its productivity level based on regulated rates developed by Alberta Municipal Affairs.

Farm Buildings- Defined as "any improvement other than a residence, to the extent it is used for farming operations".

How is farmland valued for assessment? Farmland is assessed based in its agricultural use value. All farmland is rated on the basis of its ability to produce income from the growing of crops and/or the raising of livestock. The productive value of farmland is determined using a process that sets a value for the best soils, and then makes adjustments for less than optimal conditions such as rocks, sloughs, or topography not conducive to farming practices.

What is Rural Assessment Policy (RAP)?

The Rural Assessment Policy (RAP) is applied towards a residence on farmland. Based on the assessment value of the farmland, a residence located on that farmland is partially exempted from assessment. The land and/or residence must be privately owned by the same owner leased from the province or municipality. Land that is leased by private landowners does not qualify for an exemption. The maximum exemption that a residence can receive on its assessment is $61,540. Any additional residences on the farmland may receive an exemption of up to $30,770.

Example: A farmer has a house with an assessment of $200,000 and 6 quarters of land with a total assessment of $120,000. The farmer would qualify to receive the maximum RAP exemption towards his residence assessment.

$200,000—$61,540= $138,460 taxable assessment on the residence.

*The RAP exemption amount will appear on your tax assessment notice for the purpose of providing a total assessment value of the property. It is not included in the taxable assessment total of the property, as it is a tax exempt value.

Do you need a Development Permit?

Development Permits are required in Clear Hills County pursuant to the Clear Hills County Land Use Bylaw. A Development Permit ensures that the proposed use of the land does not conflict with surrounding uses and that the proposed development is set back the appropriate distances from the property lines and roadways, located in a safe location (not too close to water bodies or oil and gas facilities etc.)

When you are planning to construct a new building, structurally renovate an existing building, or change the use of your property, you will need a development permit.

The Clear Hills County Land Use Bylaw also details development NOT requiring a permit. A few common ones are:

- Any farm use building, shed, dugout (located at least 40.8m/134 feet from the road right-of-way) or minor accessory use that otherwise conforms with the provisions of the Land Use Bylaw.
- Minor repair or maintenance to a building (provided there are no structural changes).
- The erection or repair of a fence that is less than 1 meter (3 feet) in height in front yards and 2 meters (6 feet) in height in rear and side yards.
- Decks (provided they have no walls or roof and are less than .6 meter (2 feet) from the ground level.
- Accessory buildings (sheds etc.) under 9.29m<sup>2</sup> that do not have a foundation.

Development Permit Application forms are available at the County office or on the website. Contact Shelby Giesbrecht at 780-685-3925 ext. 104 for more information.

Do you have livestock?

Are you aware of the VSI (Veterinarian Services Incorporated) Program?

- * Aids in the development of livestock expansion with a long term goal of the producer and veterinarian services sustainability.
- * The VSI program supplies a cost-share support to livestock producers, whereby Clear Hills County covers 50% of the cost eligible veterinary procedures.
- * Membership is $52.50 for a five year term.

Do you know the County has a BSE Testing Incentive Program?

The BSE testing program is to encourage producers to participate in BST Testing and assist in realizing the target of 30,000 beef cattle annually being tested to keep Canada's status as a controlled BSE risk country.

Eligibility: must be a VSI member and resident/landowner in Clear Hills County with livestock.

Restrictions: Only Veterinarian Clinics (and livestock owners) will have access to the BSE test results.

Process: VSI services provides the County with a list of members that had beef cattle tested in the quarterly report. The County then pays the member. The 2022/2023 incentive is $125/animal.

For more information, call 780-685-3925 ext. 108 or email community@clearhillscounty.ab.ca

Meet the 2023 Weed Inspectors!

Bailee Richardson

Carter Clay

Kennedy Mason

Mikayla Baldry

Mykenzi Lund

Alberta is extremely susceptible to invasive species. Some species are looking to get a good hold on our waterways and others are looking to invade our productive agricultural land. For this reason, the Weed Control Act, proclaimed in 1907 has existed in some form for more than 100 years, making it Alberta's oldest piece of legislation. Its latest version (proclaimed in June 2010) listed 46 Prohibited Noxious and 29 Noxious weeds requiring either eradication in the case of Prohibited Noxious or control in the case of Noxious. The revisions showed an increased focus on new plants, that most had assumed weren't even in Alberta yet.

To assist landowners/occupants to identify and develop control of these legislated weeds, Clear Hills County appoints Weed Inspectors annually. One of their goals is to create awareness about these new invasive weeds and why they must be controlled or eradicated.

Weed Report vs. Weed Notice

Should a Weed Inspector discover a noxious weed, they will write up a Weed Report and inform the landowner of the weed infestation. This is not a Weed Notice. A Weed Report is offered as an informational tool to encourage landowners to control the weeds in question or to contact the Agricultural Services Department to learn more about plant management.

A Weed Notice, on the other hand, is a legal document under the Alberta Weed Control Act. A Notice will be issued if a landowner has repeatedly failed to control the weeds identified in the Weed Report. A Weed Notice is a document that, if not complied with, will lead Clear Hills County taking control/eradicating the weeds in question with the landowner still responsible for the costs of the control.

Under the Act, Weed Inspectors, "may enter at any reasonable hour on land premises, and inspect the land or any crops, hay, etc., on the premises."

For more information contact Greg Coon, Agricultural fieldman at 780-685-3925 ext. 115 or email greg@clearhillscounty.ab.ca.

ROADSIDE SPRAYING

Attention
Clear Hills County
